Whether you have questions about course selection and registration, joint-degree requirements, transferring credits, or disability services, our Office of Student Life is ready and willing to help. We also offer academic workshops, individual counseling, peer tutoring, and academic skills development sessions focusing on study skills such as briefing, note-taking, outlining, exam writing, and time and stress management.
If you have questions about academic support services at Syracuse Law, please contact us at (315) 443-1146.
