Microsoft Flow

About Microsoft Flow at Syracuse University

What does Flow provide?
Microsoft Flow can be used to create automated workflows between your favorite apps and services. Some examples of what is possible with Flow are below.

- Get a notification when you receive an email from a specified sender
- Get notified when a work item is updated

What to know about Flow at Syracuse.

- Operation triggers involving email are not compatible with faculty and staff accounts.

Accessing Flow on Windows or Mac OS

- Sign-In to Office 365 - follow Sign-In steps and click on the Flow Icon
- If you do not see the Flow icon, click on "Explore all your apps" and navigate to the Flow section.

Accessing Flow on Mobile Devices

- Use Flow on Android Devices
- Use Flow on iOS Devices

Getting Help

For support of the information above, contact the ITS Help Desk by calling at 315-443-2677, by emailing help@syr.edu, or by stopping into 1-227 CST.