Instructors are advised to update to the current version of TurningPoint. There are no procedural changes to the software, but important changes for stability. Click here for more information on checking your version and updating.

TurningPoint accounts are created and accessed using Single Sign-On (SSO) with your SU NetID and password.

Instructors using Turning Point should be sure to contact the SU Bookstore with the approximate number of students and the type of clicker you require.

- Student Turning Account
- Instructor Information