General Computing

Welcome to the home page for General Computing at Syracuse University!

The sections below will provide assistance with general computing information while on campus, anything from safe computing tips, to general computer recommendations, and anything in between.

If you require further assistance, do not hesitate to contact the ITS Help Desk with any additional questions about general computing at Syracuse University.

- Student Computing at Syracuse University
- Safe Computing
- General Computing Information
- Operating Systems
- Managing Browsers
- Managing Data
- Getting Help

Student Computing at Syracuse University

Looking for general recommendations for computers and laptops? Want to know more about what you can and can't do with technology at Syracuse University?

Please visit the Student Computing at Syracuse University Home Page for information on that and much more.

Safe Computing

Looking to stay safe and secure while using technology at Syracuse University?

Please visit the Safe Computing Home Page for all information in regards to keeping yourself safe and secure from phishing attempts and other malicious attacks.

General Computing Information

Looking for anti-virus recommendations or general computer maintenance tips?

Please visit the General Computing Information Home Page for basic maintenance tips and more.

Operating Systems

Looking to dual boot your computer with two operating systems? If you are curious about operating system specific inquiries, please visit the Operating Systems Home Page

It contains information on Operating Systems such as Windows 10, macOS, and Linux, ranging from Dual Boot options to setting up Firewall Preferences.

Managing Browsers

Managing your Web Browser is a good way to keep your most frequent websites working correctly for your needs.

You can learn more about managing your browsers at the Managing Browsers Home Page

Managing Data
Managing your data and information plays a key role in your success at Syracuse University. Anything from making backups to accessing your Network and Shared Drives can be found under the Managing Data Home Page.

Getting Help

For support of the information above, contact the ITS Help Desk by calling at 315.443.2677, by emailing help@syr.edu, or by stopping into 1-227 CST.