

Questionable charges that appear on SU credit card statement

In circumstances where there are questionable charges that appear on the cardholder's statement, the cardholder should first call the vendor to clarify. If that does not work then the cardholder should dispute the charge(s). The card holder can enlist the assistance of the Budget Manager or Budget Admin if additional help needed.