

B.A. in International Relations Course Listings

Every semester the International Relations Program publishes a list of courses offered by social science departments that can be applied to the International Relations major. Each course listed can only be applied to one requirement for the major; a course with both a topic and region listed, can only count towards a student's topic concentration or region concentration.

Abbreviations used on the course lists include:

REQ – required course
AFR – Africa
ASIA – Asia
EUR – Europe
LAC – Latin America and the Caribbean
MENA – Middle East and North Africa
ICC – Intercultural Communication
IPE – International Political Economy
ILO – International Law and Organization
ISD – International Security and Diplomacy

Course Lists for International Relations Majors

These lists are published each semester in advance of registration.
