

What a Parent Sees

Students may elect to share access to their MySlice account with a parent or other interested persons by setting up a proxy account in Share My Access. Refer to Sharing MySlice Access with Parents, Guardians, or Family Members for more information.

The illustration below is an example where the student set up the proxy account to see everything that can be shared.

