

Faculty Affairs

As part of the academic administration, faculty affairs maintains Syracuse University's academic standards in collaboration with the schools and colleges and their respective faculties. We provide information, resources, and guidance across the academic career, including support, faculty hiring, professional development, and recognition.