

MESA Conference Funding

The Middle Eastern Studies Program will award up to $250 to each affiliated faculty member and graduate student who presents a paper at this year's MESA conference. The amount of award for those who organize panels is $500. After your travel, please send us your receipts for your expenses (airfare, hotel, registration, meals etc.) with a memo including the title of your presentation, panel information and the date. You must claim your travel award by MAY 15, 2020.