

Class Books and Other Resources

Course Books

Book information for departmental courses can be found through the Syracuse University Bookstore website:

On the website, select the books option in the menu.

Select the choice, "Shop Textbooks by Schedule," being sure to select the appropriate semester

Search appropriately.

Course Articles

Articles used by faculty in courses are often found in the full-text databases hosted by Syracuse Libraries. Information on those databases is found on the Syracuse University Libraries Databases A-Z search.

Access to Contemporary Newspapers

Students have access to the New York Times digital edition. Information on how to access those resources can be reached at the Syracuse Libraries' New York Times Research Guide.

Currently, students do not have access to the Washington Post online, but do have access to full-text resources through the university's research databases.
